Rachel O'Halloran

Office & Administration Coordinator
Melbourne, Victoria, Australia

Summary

Rachel has spent over 15 years working in various administration roles and travelling the world. Currently supporting the Howqua Campus at Lauriston Girls' School, she has worked in various industries, in multiple countries.

She counts her time living in London and travelling through Europe as some of the best experiences of her life, as were a five month driving trip across Canada and the Western states of the USA, and completing the Camino De Santiago pilgrimage. On weekends Rachel will often go hiking or pop into a local farmers' market. She also practices Yoga in her spare time.
